A monthly publication of the Woodward-Granger Community School District

February 2018

By Brad Anderson
W-G CSD Superintendent

Response to CRISIS Letter

Dear Parents, Guardians and Woodward-Granger School Community Members,

By now you are aware of the latest phone threat to our Elementary school in Granger this past month. Although many of us have unanswered questions as we do not understand the motivation behind these kinds of threats towards children, one thing we do know is that this situation has certainly evoked a rollercoaster of emotions. There are simply no words to describe some of these emotions that our parents, students and staff went through during this particular incident as some may still be dealing with these presently.

As a result of our own experience and the constant coverage of school tragedies in the news, the district has made it a point to offer extensive support for our children in our local schools. This support comes in many forms and continues to address school safety, violence prevention and responding to any level of emergency. We want to assure you that the safety of students is our main concern and that schools have a crisis plan in place to prevent and to respond to such tragedies.

Each school regularly practices a variety of emergency response drills including lockdown/intruder, threats to the building, weather related events and fire drills. In fact, on 9/27/17 of this year, District personnel and law enforcement agencies from the local area came together to review our school's emergency response practices with a focus on familiarizing law enforcement with our buildings and procedures when a CRISIS situation occurs on campus.

Emergency Response Management

As the District's Superintendent I have worked collaboratively with building Principals to take the lead in promoting interagency cooperation between schools in our District. Community agencies and law enforcement have come together to ensure the safety of our children. Two specific interagency groups that focus on school safety have met this year and will continue to do so into the future. The first of these groups includes the local law enforcement/first responder group mentioned above. This group includes but is not limited to: the Dallas County Sheriff's office, Woodward and Granger Police and Fire first responders along with multiple District personnel. In addition to this collaborative group the District has recently been training staff on dealing with trauma/mental health issues. Please Pass the Love is a nationally recognized organization that is committed to increasing school-based mental health supports. Several of Woodward-Granger staff have already been through one of this organizations trainings with another training being offered later this school year.

These combined efforts of universal CRISIS prevention/intervention strategies, crisis response/safety procedures and law enforcement support ensure that all Woodward-Granger schools are provided with an array of services to confirm student safety.

As we learn from our recent experience at the elementary and continue to hear about the tragedies in schools, it will be important for you to spend time talking with your children and helping them cope with these situations. We know that children may raise questions and concerns about these experiences.

Listed below are several tips from the American Psychological Association (APA) for parents to consider:

- Talk with your child. If children ask questions, talking to them about their worries and concerns is the first step to help them feel safe and begin to cope with the events occurring around them. What you talk about and how you say it does depend on their age, but all children need to be able to know that you are there and listening to them.
- Keep home a safe place. Children, regardless of age, often find home to be a safe haven when the world around them becomes overwhelming. During times of crisis, it is important to remember that your children may come home seeking the safe feeling they have being there.
- Watch for signs of stress, fear, or anxiety. After a traumatic event, it is typical for children (and adults) to experience a wide range of emotions including fearfulness, shock, anger, grief, and anxiety. Your children's behaviors may change because of their response to the event. They may experience trouble sleeping, difficulty with concentrating on schoolwork, or changes in appetite. This is normal for everyone and should begin to disappear in a few months.
- Take "news breaks." Your children may want to keep informed by gathering information about the event from the internet, television, or newspapers. It is important to limit the amount of time spent watching the news because constant exposure may actually heighten their anxiety and fears. For more information, visit the APA Help Center.

Thank you for your support of our school system and for trusting us with your students. It is our most important responsibility, one that is close to our hearts, and one magnified even more by these senseless types of situations.

Sincerely,

Brad Anderson, Superintendent

2018 District Large Group Speech

On Saturday, January 20th, the Woodward-Granger Speech Team took 34 students to compete in district competition. Those students participated in 11 different events. Four of those groups earned division II ratings.

Musical Theater

Whitney Halferty, Starr Claussen, Maggie Halferty, and Olivia Clark

Group Improvisation

Ashton Daws, Joshlynn Clark, Hailey Morrison, and Kailie Beggs

Group Improvisation

Mallory Burkhart, Megan Burkhart, Sophia David, Ashlyn Soelberg, and Trenton Anderson

Group Mime

Katelyn Scharlau, Matt Hansen, and Chloe David

While these four groups did not qualify for state competition, they worked diligently to prepare for districts, and put on their best performance.

We had 7 groups earn division I ratings, which qualifies them for state competition, which will be held on Saturday, February 3rd, at Waukee High School.

Musical Theater

Erin Kamp, Maggie Odegaard, Liv Jones

Short Film

Caleb Jones, Tanner Elston, Wyatt Ferris, Asher Little

Ensemble Acting

DMACC Classes

Congratulations to our students who earn DMACC credit for first semester of the 2017-18 school year. 49 HS students earned 194 hours of college credit. A breakdown is below:

	# of Students	# of Credit Hours
10th grade	5	15
11th grade	14	59
12th grade	30	120

This means at least half of the senior class completed a college level course first semester.

Senior Parents

If you are the parent of a graduating senior, we need your help. In an attempt to honor the history of WGHS, if your son or daughter is a 3rd generation graduate of WGHS, we want to know. We would like to honor your senior and family at graduation. Here is an example:

Alyssa Bice Class of 2018
Wayne Bice Class of 1988 (Father)
Bud Bice Class of 1949 (Grandfather)

Kesley Bodensteiner Class of 2017
Allison Howell (Bice) Class of 1985 (Mother)
Russell Bice Class of 1949 (Grandfather)
Nylene York Class of 1949 (Grandmother)

If your family lineage of graduates of WGHS goes back more than 3 generations, please include everyone. The hope is we have 3rd, 4th, 5th and further generations graduating from WGHS to celebrate.

9th Period

Beginning second semester of this school year, WGHS changed the daily schedule. A 9th period was added to provide students with additional support and/or instruction over coursework. Teachers will email each student and their respective parent/guardian if the student is required to attend 9th period. Attendance will be required if a teacher assigns a student, however, students are available to seek out teachers for additional support if they feel the need. Below is the new WGHS schedule for Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

Period	Time
1st	8:25 - 9:09
2nd	9:12 - 9:56
3rd	9:59 - 10:43
4th	10:46 - 11:30
5th	11:33 - 12:41
Lunch A 11:33-11:54	B 12:20-12:41
6th	12:44 - 1:28
7th	1:31 - 2:15
8th	2:18 - 3:02
9th	3:05 - 3:30

Library News and Tips

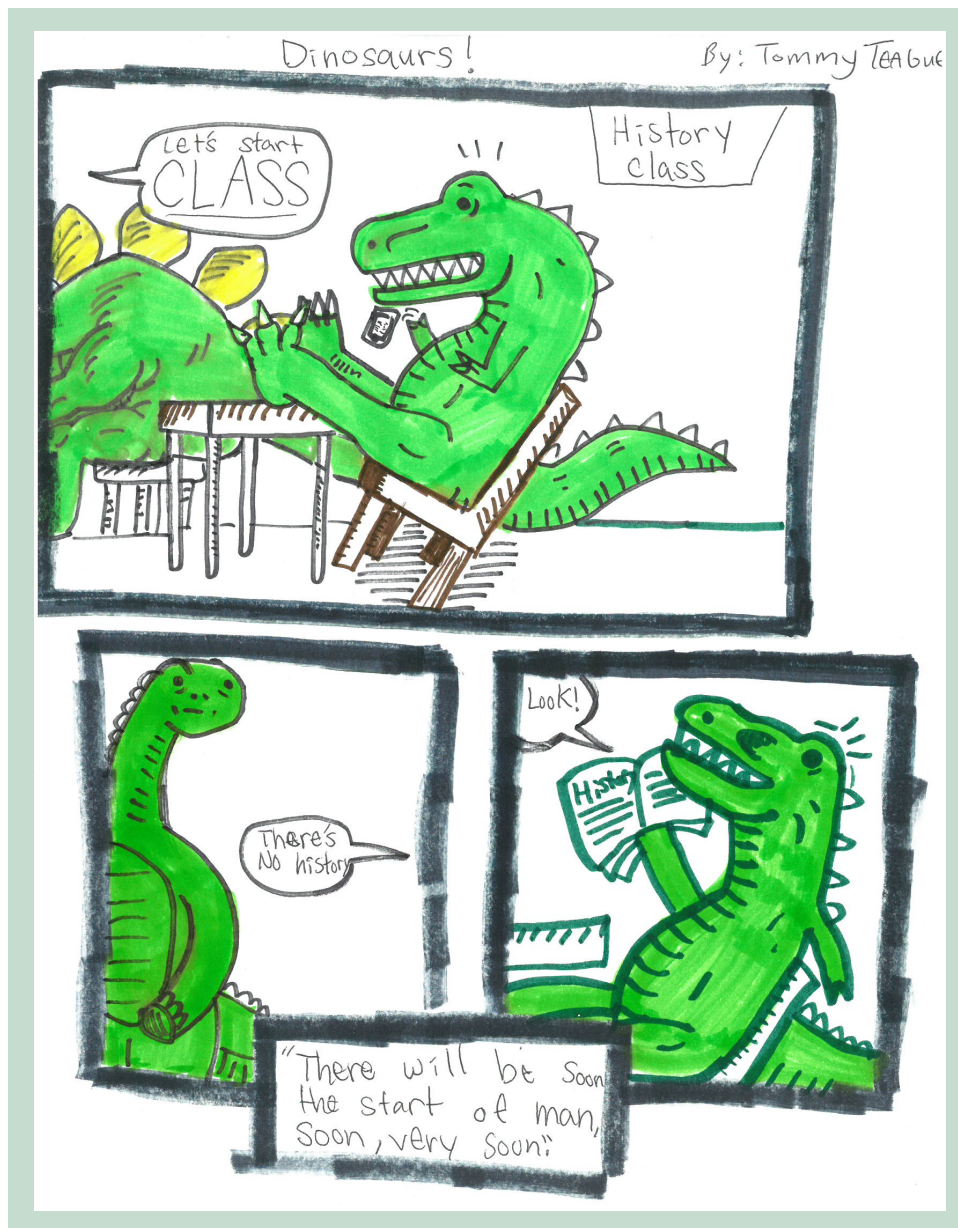

Recently we have added quite a few books to all three of our library collections. The books are chosen after careful consideration including reading reviews and checking that the book supports curriculum. It's also important to make sure we have books whose reading levels fit our students' needs.

Sometimes I'm asked how to know the reading level of a book. The easiest way is to look at the back cover to see if it is printed there. If it's not, there are several apps available for your personal device that will give you the information you need. Scholastic has two in particular. The first, Book Wizard, allows you to search by the author or title. The book is displayed, along with its interest level (by grade) and its Guided Reading Level. Another great tool is Scholastic's Book Fair app, which allows you to scan the barcode of a book with similar results. While neither of these apps are all-encompassing, they do have quite a selection.

If you are not sure what the different systems for leveling books mean, there are websites that have conversion charts to make it easier on you.
